

WILLIAM CHRISTENBERRY.

JUNE 17, 1898.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. GALLINGER, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following REPORT.

[To accompany H. R. 7696.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 7696) granting an increase of pension to William Christenberry, have examined the same and report:

The House report sets forth the following facts:

The claimant was a private in Captain Miller's company of Tennessee Volunteers, and served from May 13 to July 14, 1838, in the Cherokee Indian disturbances. He is now a pensioner at $8 per month under the Indian war service pension act of July 27, 1892.

Medical and other testimony accompanying the bill show that the claimant is 89 years old and so feeble that he is confined to his bed nearly all the time. It is further shown that he is wholly without means of support aside from his small pension.

There are many precedents for the allowance of an increased rating to the aged and dependent survivors of the old Indian wars, and in view of the facts set forth above the passage of the bill is recommended.

In view of the extreme age and necessities of soldier, your committee recommend the passage of the bill.
